

ED ANTOJA

Writer, producer and director trained at New York University, the Cuban Film School and the University of California. At the age of 26, Ed founded La Diferència -his own agency and production company- from where, for more than 20 years, he has written and produced advertising campaigns and projects for film and TV.

He has also directed the documentaries "When a Dream Comes True" (2020) -the only Spanish project of its promotion selected to participate in the DOC CAMPUS, where it won the award for best pitch in Leipzig- and "Empatía" (2017) -released in theaters in Spain, France and Latin America, winner of the Audience Award at the Greenpeace Film Festival and broadcasted on TVs in Europe, the United States and Latin America.

Ed is currently developing his first fiction feature film as a director, "Malo Será" (written with screenwriter Adrià Berlanga), a project that received the ICEC grant for the development of audiovisual projects last 2022 and is currently in the process of financing. He is also developing the short film "On Ploren els Arbres" which he co-produces with Ayhe Productions ("SOLO", "El dulce sabor del limón").
